

	Fremach Morava s.r.o. Jožky Silného 2824 767 01 Kroměříž Czech Republic	Revision no.: 0
---	--	-----------------

Environmental policy of the company

The company Fremach Morava is a processor of plastic that are processed in the way of injecting, painting, lasering, and printing with following assembly. The protection and creation of environment, creating safe and healthy working conditions for its employees and their permanent improvement, including pollution prevention permanently belong to the company's highest priorities. To meet them, the management of the company Fremach Morava accepts the following principles:

Compliance with environmental regulations and other programmes

- I. To meet valid legal regulations requirements for the protection of environment and other requirements the company has bound itself.

Minimization of impacts on the environment

- II. To reduce amount of pollutants emitted into the air from paint shop.
- III. To prevent pollutants leak into sewage water.
- IV. To stop using any kinds of chemical products with contain of heavy metals and other prohibited compounds in the production.

Energy, raw materials and materials savings

- V. To search for possibilities of permanent reduction of energy consumption, input raw materials and materials.

Emergency readiness

- VI. To strive for prevention of emergency situations origination and if they occur, to proceed according to emergency plans ensuring minimization of negative impacts on environment. To check regularly the employees' ability to react correctly to emergency situations in a form of model trainings.

Preliminary environmental evaluation

- VII. To evaluate impacts on environment with technology changes and planned new productions, including new products even before deciding on their realisation.

Products and services

- VIII. To provide information on the company products and where it is necessary to train customers, distributors and the public in the area of safety usage, transportation, storing and disposal of provided products and to apply similar principles in providing services.

Employees' education

- IX. To educate, train and motivate the employees to carry out their activities in environmentally friendly and responsible way, and to conduct the employees to safe natural resources.

Contractual suppliers

- X. To acquaint the employees of supplying companies with the principals and progresses used by the company and to require their application. With other suppliers, to verify their behaviour towards the environment.

Open approach

- XI. To strengthen open approach and a dialogue with the employees, public and other involved parties by accepting and reacting to their initiatives. To communicate regularly the information concerning impacts of the company activities on the environment.

In Kromeriz, dated 10/11/2008

QM - B.Vájová

VV – O.Ilgner

HR – E.Adolfová

EM – J.Vája

MF – H.Příbyl

LM - Wannes Maertens

Director – P.Creedon